Executive Services Group Adds Staff and Moves to Expanded Space

Conshohocken-based wealth and lifestyle management firm experiencing growth.

Conshohocken, PA, May 2008 - Executive Services Group (ESG), a regional provider of wealth and lifestyle management services, has recently added two new members to its management team. Joining ESG are Hank Oberly, Director of Business Development and Melanie Lighty, Senior Client Advisor. Combined, the new team members bring over 20 years of professional experience to their roles at ESG.

Oberly, a ten-year veteran of the financial services industry for Merrill Lynch and Lincoln Financial Group, will focus on business development and client retention.

Melanie Lighty joins ESG after serving as CFO for Tom Knox's 2007 Mayoral campaign, overseeing the management of investments, banking, fund raising, and budgeting. Prior to joining the Knox campaign, Lighty, worked for a Private Family Office overseeing the affairs of multiple families. Lighty will handle specific clients for ESG, overseeing the delivery of a full range of financial and life style management services.

To accommodate the additional staff, ESG has moved into expanded space at Two Tower Bridge on Fayette Street in Conshohocken.

ESG is a wealth and lifestyle management firm providing a range of advisory and personal services to families, individuals, institutions and foundations. Clients turn to ESG for exemplary advice and superior service. Online at www.esgpcs.com.
